Costcutter in Chorlton wins national award for outstanding customer service

Costcutter on Sandy Lane has been named UK 'Store of the Quarter' by CollectPlus in recognition of its excellent customer service to people in Chorlton, Manchester

9 February 2015: Costcutter in Chorlton-cum-Hardy has today been named the nation's best CollectPlus store in the brand's quarterly awards programme, which recognises excellent customer satisfaction and service levels over the period October to December 2014.

CollectPlus is the UK's largest independent store-based delivery and returns service and offers a convenient way for people to collect online purchases or return unwanted items to more than 260 high street and online retailers, including Amazon, John Lewis and ASOS. People can also send parcels to any UK address from a CollectPlus store.

Costcutter, on Sandy Lane, has been part of the CollectPlus network since October 2009. It offers a convenient service thanks to its extended opening hours, which are 6am to 9pm seven days a week, so that local residents can collect, return and send parcels at a time and place that suits them.

The CollectPlus 'Store of the Quarter' awards programme recognises the best stores in the CollectPlus network of over 5,800 newsagents, convenience stores, petrol stations and supermarkets. With 12 regional winners selected, Chorlton's Costcutter was judged to be the top store in the company's nationwide network, achieving the best overall performance for customer service, transactions and compliance.

Mr Robert Madden, owner of Costcutter on Sandy Lane, said: "We work hard to give our customers the best possible service, so winning this award is fantastic recognition of that and I'm really proud of the team. We joined the CollectPlus network as a means of expanding the range of services we offer to local customers. It has proven to be really popular and has brought in new customers who had not visited the shop before."

Mr Madden was presented with his award by CollectPlus CEO Neil Ashworth, who said: "Providing a great level of customer service is at the very heart of what we do. Our services are designed around what our customers need and want and this is only possible because of the great service that stores like this provide."

"We are delighted to announce Chorlton's Costcutter on Sandy Lane as the winner of our store of the quarter award, an outstanding example among our nationwide network of more than 5,800 stores. The commitment of these stores means that more and more people in the UK are using our services to pick up and return their online shopping or send parcels at a time and place that suits them."

Founded in 2009, CollectPlus is a joint venture between PayPoint, the leading retail payment network, and Yodel, the UK's leading independent parcel carrier.
