G&A's Corner Shop in Inverurie, Aberdeenshire wins national award for outstanding customer service

G&A's Corner Shop on Garioch Road has been named the UK's 'Store of the Quarter' by CollectPlus in recognition of its excellent customer service

28 AUGUST 15: G&A's Corner Shop on Garioch Road, Inverurie, has today been named the UK's best CollectPlus store in the brand's quarterly awards programme, which recognises excellent customer satisfaction and service levels over the period April to June 2015.

CollectPlus is the UK's largest independent store-based delivery and returns service and offers a convenient way for people to collect online purchases or return unwanted items to more than 300 high street and online retailers, including John Lewis, Very and ASOS.

G&A's Corner Shop on Garioch Road, previously a regional winner in the last quarterly awards, was one of the very first stores to join the CollectPlus network in March 2009. Shoppers can use the CollectPlus service at the store to have online shopping purchases delivered for collection at a location that is convenient to them, meaning they do not have to wait in for deliveries. They can also return unwanted items or send parcels from G&A's Corner Shop, and send parcels to any UK address.

Thanks to the personal touch and fantastic customer service provided by the husband-and-wife team of Graham and Amanda Brimner, G&A's Corner Shop has flourished in Inverurie, despite competition from large supermarkets in the local area.

Graham Brimner, co-owner of G&A's Corner Shop, said:

"We have worked really hard over the past eleven years to make a success of the store and provide the sort of personal touch to customers that you only really get from a family business. We joined the CollectPlus network to provide this much needed service to the local community so it's really heartening to receive such great feedback directly from our customers. The local community has been great to us, and despite the competition provided by nearby supermarkets, such as Tesco and Aldi, they continue to come in and shop here. We couldn't be more delighted to win this award from CollectPlus."

The CollectPlus 'Store of the Quarter' awards programme recognises the best stores in the CollectPlus network of 5,800 newsagents, convenience stores, petrol stations and supermarkets. With 12 regional winners selected, G&A's Corner Shop was judged to be the top store in the company's nationwide network, achieving the best overall performance for customer satisfaction, scoring an impressive 4.97 out of 5 stars between April and June 2015.

Graham and Amanda were presented with their award by Neil Ashworth, CEO at CollectPlus, who said: "G&A's Corner Shop is a truly deserving national winner, it's great to visit this shop which is at the heart of its local community, and see the outstanding level of service owners Graham and Amanda provide to CollectPlus customers first hand."

Having been members of our network since the very first weeks of our history, Graham and Amanda understand the importance of offering customers the services they want, to keep them coming back through the door.

CollectPlus is all about convenience, and it is the great service that stores like this provide which makes it possible for people across the UK to pick up and return their online shopping or send parcels at a time and place that suits them. G&A's Corner Shop sets an outstanding example among our nationwide network of 5,800 stores."

Recent research has demonstrated that stores benefit from offering the CollectPlus service, as two-thirds (67%) of customers dropping off or collecting a parcel, across the network, are visiting that particular store for the first time. The research also showed that stores in the network take an average of £3,095 a year in additional revenue, on top of the chance to be crowned winners in the quarterly and annual store awards scheme.

Founded in 2009, CollectPlus is a joint venture between PayPoint, the leading retail payment network, and Yodel, the UK's leading independent parcel carrier.
