PayPoint awarded multi-channel housing payments contract

Welwyn Garden City, 9 November 2015: PayPoint has been named as a 'Nominated Supplier' to Procurement for Housing's (PfH's) Electronic Payment Services framework. This gives PfH members direct and preferential access to PayPoint's multi-channel payment solution which has been designed to deliver broader payment choice for residents whilst reducing the costs associated with payment collections for PfH's members.

PayPoint's multi-channel payment solution offers a range of payment methods including cash in-store at over 28,000 PayPoint retailers nationwide, app, online, text, phone and a 'cash-out' service, which gives members the ability to generate and issue their own vouchers redeemable for cash in-store.

PayPoint's multi-channel payment solution is flexible, cost effective and can be tailored to the individual requirements of PfH members. Members can choose payment channel options to suit their needs and the app and online channels can be customised to reflect a member's brand identity.

"We are delighted to announce our partnership with PfH and to offer true multi-channel payment capabilities to its members," said Lewis Alcraft, Commercial Director of PayPoint UK and Ireland. "The payment landscape is ever evolving with residents now expecting flexibility in how they pay their bills. Not only does our multi-channel proposition provide this all-important convenience, choice and control, but working directly with PayPoint could provide substantial savings for organisations in transaction processing fees and streamlining payments," he added.

Mark McCue, Category Buyer, at Procurement for Housing commented: "With new diverse payment solutions being introduced and as more residents self-manage their financial commitments, PfH has launched a new electronic payments services framework to accommodate the ever-evolving payments market. Naturally we wanted to work with payment industry experts and PayPoint fits the bill to deliver our Members access to a range of cost-effective, multichannel payment options."
